Romeo & Juliet by William Shakespeare
(A modern take on a classic love story) In Partnership with Pickwick Players
Director Tyler Richards Hewes | Producers Heather Deerfield & Samuel Young

Romeo is a Montague and Juliet is a Capulet. Their families are enmeshed in a longstanding feud, but for Romeo & Juliet it is love at first sight. Juliet's father forces her to marry Paris. To avoid this marriage, Juliet takes a potion that makes her appear dead, and sends Romeo word that her "death" is a ruse. The plan goes awry, as Romeo is told that she is dead and, in his grief, kills himself. The familiar story of these "star-crossed lovers" has been told and re-told throughout the ages. Reacquaint yourself with this classic love story and introduce the next generation to a tale that has entertained audiences for nearly 500 years.

Aug 31 – Sep 30, 2018

Deathtrap by Ira Levin
(A classic stage thriller)
Director Brent A. Stringfield | Producer Lynn Wolsey

Successful playwright Sidney Bruhl struggles to overcome a "dry spell" that has resulted in a string of failures and a shortage of funds. When he receives a script from a student in one of his classes, he offers to collaborate with the young man to polish the play for Broadway. The suspense mounts steadily as the plot begins to twist and turn with devilish cleverness and with such an abundance of thrills and laughter that audiences will be held spellbound until the final, startling moments of the play.

"Scream a little. It's good for you."
—Cue magazine.

Nov 2 – Dec 9, 2018 (no performance Thanksgiving Weekend)

A Christmas Carol by Michael Paller
(A holiday classic with a twist; based on a book by Charles Dickens)
Director Annette Alliano | Producer TBD

This fresh approach to the classic Christmas tale faithfully conveys the magic of Dickens. On Christmas Eve, 1843, friends and family gather at Dickens' home and invite him to tell a story. He demurs, refusing to work on Christmas Eve unless each of his guests takes a part in the telling. And so the story unfolds with the cast of ten playing over 40 parts.

"A treat ... for the whole family to enjoy."
—Cleveland Sunday Press.

Jan 11 – Feb 10, 2019

People v. Beanstalk by Neil Pisk
(A Courtroom Drama of Fairytale Proportions)
Director TBD | Producer TBD

Be part of the production in this courtroom drama written by a local playwright and actor. Jack Beanstalk, from the familiar fairytale of "Jack and the Beanstalk," is on trial for murdering the Giant by cutting down the magic beanstalk. Familiar characters – including Jack's Mother, the Goose that lays golden eggs and the magical Harp – are called to testify, along with a mix of new characters to create a family-friendly show. There's a different verdict at every performance, as the jurists, who are drawn from the audience, decide Jack's fate! Whether you're an "oldster" or a youngster, you'll enjoy this clever production.

Mar 8 – Apr 7, 2019

Jake's Women by Neil Simon
(A Hilarious Comedy)
Director TBD | Producer TBD

Jake, a novelist more successful with fiction than with life, faces a marital crisis by daydreaming about the women in his life. Jake's women include a revered first wife who was killed years earlier in an accident, his daughter who is recalled as a child but is now a young woman, his boisterous and bossy sister, an opinionated analyst, his current wife who is leaving Jake for another man, and a prospective third wife. A hilarious foray into the world of modern relationships.

"One of Simon's best." —The Los Angeles Times

May 3 – Jun 2, 2019

Exit Laughing by Paul Elliot
(A Comedy in True Southern Style)
Director Gil Savage | Producer Dorothy Courtney

When the biggest highlight of your lives for the past 30 years has been your weekly card night out with the girls, what do you do when one of your foursome inconveniently dies? If you're Connie, Leona and Millie – three Southern ladies from Birmingham – you do the most daring thing you've ever done: you "borrow" your friend's ashes from the funeral home for one last card game, setting in motion the wildest, most exciting night of your lives, beginning with a police raid, a stripper, laughs and a whole new way of looking at all the fun you can have when you're truly living.
